You can save a big part of your coal bill and yet keep your house better heated this winter by using Felt Weather Strips on the outside doors and windows. Patent Felt Weather Strips have many points of superiority over rubber or any other weather strips. Rubber strips become hard, brittle and unpliable in extreme cold weather and melt and stick in warm weather. Felt Strips do not. Felt Strips will last as long as your house if well cared for. They will not only keep out cold and wind, but also snow, sleet, rain and dust. GRESHAM AND SICKLES. Gossip Over the Reported Change of Fro on Their Part.

The announcement that Judge Greeham going to bolt the republican ticket this fall and Bank Wrecker Dann of Buffalo Atvote for Mr. Cleveland and the statement that Gen. Sickles may take the stump for Harrison have furnished the most interesting topics Page 2 of discussion for politicians today. Both are things that have been expected. It has been known for a long while that Judge Gresham did not agree with the republican platform on the tariff and since the G. A. R. encampment it has been known that Gen. Sickles did not intend to vote for Cleveland. Whether the republicans could get Gen Sickles on the stump has been a question of interest, and it is believed now that they are goterest, and it is believed now that they are going to.

The announcement as to Mr. Gresham has not caused surprise at the White House, nor among Mr. Harrison's Indiana friends generally. They say that Judge Gresham's attitude is not due to any personal differences between him and Mr. Harrison, as Judge Gresham is too broad a man to be influenced by such a consideration, but that the judge is a tariff reformer and cannot agree with the Minneapolis platform. They do not attach much importance to his action as influencing other votes. influencing other votes.

The democrats, however, consider that the announcement will have considerable influence on the election in Indiana, especially about Evansville, New Albany and Fort Wayne, where Judge Gresbam is very popular.

Capt. Cobaugh is the chief of the treasury police force.

So the well-dressed, middle-aged gentleman of dignified demeanor was escorted down to Capt. Cobaugh to get his salary. But he didn't get it. He was induced to believe that his papers were not in good shape and that he must have a Congressman look out for his claim, and he started away to hunt for one.
